

Declaration Prayer

1 Peter 2:9 (NIV)

But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

I Declare...

- I am chosen by God.
- I am called to do ministry in His church.
- My citizenship comes through the blood of Jesus.
- Jesus is my Lord and I belong to Him.
- I will openly declare His praise.
- I am a child of light and darkness has no place in my life.

1 Peter 2:10-11 (NIV)

Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy. Dear friends, I urge you, as aliens and strangers in the world, to abstain from sinful desires, which war against your soul.

I Declare...

- I now walk in the mercy and grace of God.
- This world is not my home.
- I will win the fight against the sinful desires that battles against me.
- I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength. (Phil 4:13)

1 Peter 2:12 (NIV)

Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us.

I Declare...

- I will live such a life that His goodness shines through even in this world of wrong.
- I will make my life decisions based on the greater goals, rather than short term satisfaction.
- I will work to bring you glory until you return for me.
